

Friend Function and Friend Class

1. Write a program in C++ to calculate mean value of n numbers using friend function.
2. Write a program in C++ to find greater between two numbers using friend function.
3. Write a program in C++ to display student's information using friend function.
4. Write a program in C++ to swap between two numbers using friend function.
5. class Distance { private: int meter; public: Distance(): meter(0) { }

//friend function friend int addFive(Distance); };

Complete the above class definition and demonstrate its use?

6. WAP to find the greatest of two given numbers in two different classes using friend function.
7. WAP to find the sum of two numbers declared in a class and display the numbers and sum using friend class.